Alyonah is a luxurious holiday home located on the edge of Daylesford made available to OTIS by the Frost family. The combination of expansive lawn areas, light filled interior, open plan layout and high-end furniture combine to create such a welcoming feel, you may find yourself not wanting to leave! This well maintained retreat is the perfect 'home away from home', it has all the essentials and is filled with additional touches such as games, books, DVDs and even boasts a heated spa and alfresco dining area. A fantastic children's playground ensures that the kids will be happy too.

A relaxing 20min stroll or a 2min drive will find you in the heart of Daylesford. The region is known as 'spa country'. Visitors who come here in search of a spot of pampering are spoilt for choice. It's the perfect place for relaxation and 'cultural' recreation with numerous cafés, bars and restaurants, bookshops and boutique shopping. Perched on a sloping hill in the Wombat Hill Botanical Gardens, you may also discover the famous Convent Gallery which houses three levels of art, shopping, a restaurant and bar set within six acres of beautiful gardens.
